

Career Training Opportunity

You're inquisitive.
You like to learn.
You are a fast,
accurate typist with exceptional English language skills.
You're just our type.

Become an educational transcriber. Benefit others.

Earn a competitive hourly rate working in a variety of classes.

Transcribers use their skills to provide speech-to-text accommodations in classes or meetings for people with hearing loss or other communication access needs.

Working in the classroom or remotely, a TypeWell transcriber uses advanced abbreviation software to capture the essence of a discussion in clear English text in real time.

Complete the TypeWell distance learning course in just 2-3 months.

TypeWell's flexible, interactive, online training features a team of experienced instructors who provide personalized feedback and support.

Screening tests include grammar, listening skills, and typing speed (minimum 60 words per minute).
